Krauter & Company Opens New Office in Dallas, Texas

Krauter & Company LLC has recently opened its seventh office with a new location in Dallas, Texas. The office will be managed by Corey Robison who comes to Krauter & Company with 15 years of brokerage experience in providing client solutions in both the middle market and large commercial space. Prior to joining Krauter & Company, Corey was with Aon where he was the leader of the Commercial Risk Practice and active in talent identification and recruitment in Dallas, TX. This office has been staffed to provide clients with the full capability to provide total account placement and servicing for all coverages. The brokers in this office bring with them several industry specializations including Real Estate, Logistics, Mergers & Acquisitions and Food & Beverage.

“We are very excited about this group of very talented brokers that have joined our firm. They have already made a very positive impact to our operations and they provide a key logistical component to our national footprint” adds André Eichenholtz, President of Krauter & Company.

Krauter & Company is a full service international insurance and benefits broker, with a specialization in Mergers & Acquisitions transactions and is a member of The Krauter Group.
